

SECURITY FORM

1) PRODUCT CODE: PolyMaster White EMPE I 050-R

2) PRODUCT:

PolyMaster White is to be used for the coloring of plastics materials.

3) APPLICATION:

The product has been developed for the production of films for blow molding, and injection molding of plastics

4) APPARENCE:

Granules of white color

5) DOSAGE:

The dosage normally recommended is 1 - 4% depending on the result of color and opacity to achieve, the type of polymer and of the thicknesses.

6) CHARACTERISTICS:

The product is mainly made of polyethylene, TiO₂ and mineral filler.

7) STORAGE:

in places where humidity and temperature are normal the product remains fully effective for about a year environmental conditions with high temperature and humidity adversely affect the quality of the product
We recommend storage in a room away from water and sun.

8) PACKAGE:

Plastic bags from 25 kilograms/CAD

This information corresponds to present level of our knowledge and is intended to provide information about our current products and their application possibilities. They are not intended to provide specific properties of both the products and their suitability for a particular application. Any form of application to the end-use, it remains the sole responsibility of our customers that if they take on any responsibility. Our technical service is a complete and comprehensive available to our clientele for any information.